Day 3 – your programm

- Breakfast at the hotel
- Transfer to Zermatt
- Overnight in Zermatt – The Omnia or similar

Zermatt

The location of Zermatt at the foot of the Matterhorn and in the middle of an enormous hiking and ski region makes it one of the world's most attractive vacation villages. The ski region encompasses 54 mountain railways and lifts as well as 360 kilometers of pistes. The region called "Matterhorn glacier paradise" is Europe's largest and highest lying summer skiing region. Numerous national ski teams train here in the summer.

The region is legendary amongst mountaineers: the Haute Route, a challenging international route that takes several days to complete, leads from Mont Blanc to Zermatt. Over 400 kilometers of hiking trails lead through and out of the Matter Valley, including the mule traders' trails, which date back to the 13th century (a part of these paths is paved).

Hotel The Omnia L

The lodge sits majestically on a rock 45m above the village. Passing through a tunnel, guests come to a lift rising up through the rock to the lobby at almost 1,650m above sea level. The hotel has 30 rooms, including 12 suites, as well as a library, a restaurant with open fireplaces, a lounge bar, a boardroom, the Caverne bar and two sun terraces high above the rooftops of Zermatt. St Moritz

St. Moritz, which is in the Upper Engadine, at an elevation of 1,856 m, boasts plenty of sunny days. It was exactly this sun that was legally protected as the emblem of St. Moritz in 1930. St. Moritz was often ahead of the times - for example, the first electric light went on at Christmastime in 1878, the first golf tournament in the Alps took place here, in 1889 and one of the first ski lifts in Switzerland began running in 1935.

Guests from all over the world appreciate the modern Alpine lifestyle, characterised by top-class restaurants that can satisfy gourmet demands even by the side of the slopes, hotels that set standards in every category, and events of international calibre. The Via Serlas guarantees great shopping in a small space, though you can also find local specialities like the famous Engadine nut tart just around the corner.

Badrutt's Palace L

Opened in 1896 by the Badrutt family and still owned by them, this hotel has a legendary reputation. The Badrutt's Palace Hotel has more than 157 rooms, including 37 suites with a view of the Alps. Sumptuous dining in "Le Restaurant" (15 GaultMillau points), the "grande dame" of the hotel's seven first-class restaurants, or in IGNIV by Andreas Caminada@Badrutt's Palace, which opened in December 2016 and has already won a Michelin star.
